1. What rights does the 1st Amendment’s guarantee of freedom of assembly protect? What does it NOT protect?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. What is civil disobedience? Is it a right protected by the Constitution?
________________________________________________________________________

3. What kinds of rules can government make to regulate assemblies? What guidelines must these rules follow?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

4. How did the following cases affect the rights of demonstrators?
   a. Cox v. New Hampshire _________________________________________________
   b. Gregory v. Chicago _________________________________________________
   c. Madsen v. Women’s Health Services, Inc. ________________________________
   d. Hill v. Colorado _____________________________________________________

5. Are demonstrations on private property constitutionally guaranteed? Explain.
________________________________________________________________________

6. What is the right of association? What early Supreme Court case upheld it?
________________________________________________________________________

7. Explain how each of the following cases affected the right of association.
   a. Brown v. Socialist Worker Campaign Committee __________________________
   b. Gibson v. Florida _____________________________________________________
   c. Boy Scouts of America v. Dale __________________________________________