1. In the chart below, summarize how people may become American citizens.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Acquiring Citizenship</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>By ____________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a. ____________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. ____________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By ____________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a. ____________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. ____________________</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Describe the two ways that Americans can lose their citizenship.
   a. ______________________________________________________
   b. ______________________________________________________

3. Why is the United States called a “nation of immigrants”?
   ______________________________________________________________________

4. Contrast immigration policy before and after the 1880s.
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

5. How have quotas been used to regulate immigration?
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

6. What law governs immigration today? What are some of its provisions?
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

7. What is deportation? What are some reasons that an alien may be deported?
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

8. How did each of the following laws affect undocumented aliens?
   a. Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986
      ______________________________________________________________________
   b. Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996
      ______________________________________________________________________